

On Tuesday, Cindy Brown, my Community Relations Representative for The Villages, visited The Villages Hometown Civitan Club. They are a group of generous and caring women who meet monthly to socialize, learn, and help people by raising funds to support issues that affect women and children with developmental disabilities.

(Extract from the February 2022 "The Webster Wire")