

How We Give

It's almost impossible to fall through the cracks in The Villages, where a massive army of volunteers spend tremendous time and energy helping others. Somehow, they always say, they get back more than they give. Here are some dispatches from the frontlines of philanthropy this week, compiled by Daily Sun Senior Writer Maddie Cutler.

Villages Daily February 2023

$25,000: The Noon Rotary Club of The Villages recently got its fundraising back from the Carol's by Candlelight event. The club collected $25,000 and passed the money to Pro-Am Performing Arts Corp. One of the club's main goals is supporting local charities through donations.

Bobbi Steele Marotta is the president of the Noon Rotary Club of The Villages. The club's upcoming Spring Thing, scheduled from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. March 18 at The Villages Pol Club, will be the newest and largest event for the club.

$900

The Hometown Civitan Club collected a profit of $900 during its Friday night bunco game Jan. 27. There were about 85 people in attendance, and $500 in prize money was given out to the winners. Club president Laura McLaughlin said the night was a success for everyone involved.
